<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Job Title</th>
<th>Job Description</th>
<th>Job Requirements</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>1. ENGINEERS (OPERATIONS)</td>
<td>As part of the Organisation’s Operations team, you will be an essential part of the shipyard’s day to day activities. You will specialise in one of the following disciplines – Electrical, Mechanical, Piping and Project Management. Discover and nurture your leadership potential and troubleshooting skills as you steer your team to meet production, safety and quality benchmarks in the Company’s daily operations.</td>
<td>Bachelor in Electrical / Mechanical / Civil Engineering</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>2. COMMERCIAL ENGINEERS</td>
<td>You will coordinate the Production Departments for work completion reports and work with customer representatives to prepare, negotiate and settle invoices. You will have the opportunity to source and recruit suitable subcontractors to carry out ship repair / conversion works as well as ensure cost estimates are in compliance with client’s specifications.</td>
<td>Bachelor in Electrical / Mechanical / Civil Engineering</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>3. DESIGN ENGINEERS</td>
<td>You will be involved in the engineering design for projects ranging from oil rig construction, ship conversion and ship repair to construction of offshore structures. You will have the opportunity to work with some of the best in the industry and a chance to grow in an environment that nurtures and champions innovation.</td>
<td>Bachelor in Electrical / Mechanical / Civil Engineering</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>4. HEALTH, SAFETY AND ENVIRONMENT ENGINEERS</td>
<td>Responsible for the shipyard’s safety excellence, you will play a critical role in shipyard operations by enforcing, monitoring and developing HSE standards, procedures and guidelines. You will conduct incident and accident investigations as well as provide</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
5. Job Title: QA/QC ENGINEERS
   Job Description: The quality control and assurance team plays an instrumental role in upholding consistently high quality in the Group’s product, services designs and processes. As part of your responsibilities, you will ensure that stringent quality requirements are met for a wide range of operations. These include verifying the integrity of structural steel materials and electrical inspections as well as ensuring benchmarks are met in welding procedures and certifications.
   Job Requirements: Bachelor in Electrical / Mechanical / Civil / Material Engineering

For internship, positions available are:

1. Job Title: Same as above
   Job Description:
   Job Requirements:

2. Job Title:
   Job Description:
   Job Requirements:

3. Job Title:
   Job Description:
   Job Requirements:

The guidance on safety regulations to the rest of the shipyard’s operations.

Job Requirements: Bachelor in Engineering disciplines